Overview

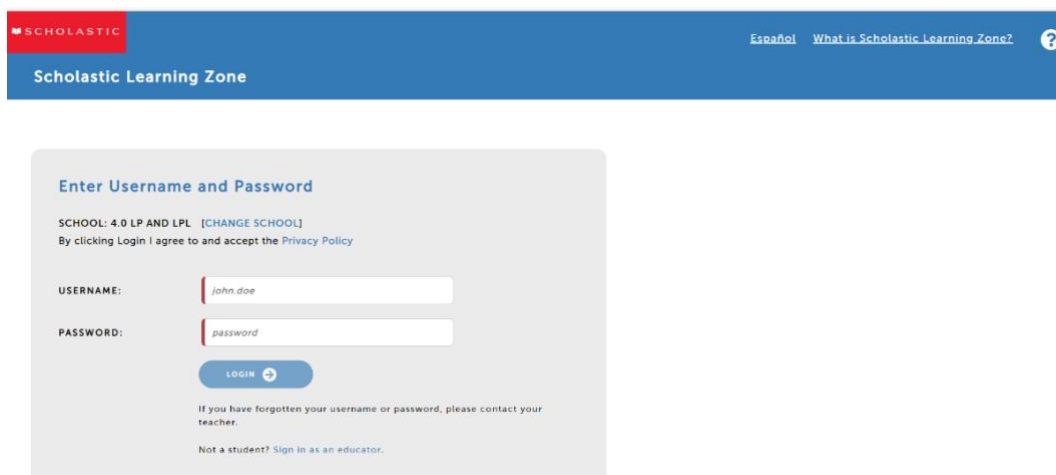

Scholastic Literacy Pro™ is a browser-based program that assesses students' reading ability and comprehension. It combines a reading assessment that computes students' Lexile® measures with a reading management program that includes thousands of quizzes to assess independent reading. Students are introduced to books from the library on Literacy Pro that are at their reading level, appropriate to their age, and that match their interests. Literacy Pro features thousands of high-interest fiction and nonfiction eBooks, that are sourced from all over the world. The stories reflect varied backgrounds and cultures, and dozens of new books are added every month.

Besides providing access to eBooks for students to read, teaching resources like Interactive Read-alouds and Read & Thinks are also provided to support teachers in helping their students grow and develop in their literacy journey.

Scholastic Literacy Pro has Student, Teacher, and Administrator user profiles. Students use Scholastic Literacy Pro to generate a Recommended Reading List, take the Literacy Pro Test, read books and attempt book quizzes, and track their results. Teachers use Scholastic Literacy Pro to assign books and quizzes, track students' progress, and generate reports for their students and classes. Administrators use Scholastic Literacy Pro to view data and measure progress across the entire school.

Name: Diana Wood
School: Scholastic High
Grade: Class 3
Class: Team 3

Date: 01 Nov 2023

Dear Parent or Caregiver,

Diana has completed a classroom-based reading test as part of Scholastic Literacy Pro. The program is designed to develop successful readers by evaluating student's reading abilities and motivating them to read more at appropriately challenging levels.

In the test, students read a series of short passages from books and informational materials. After each passage, the student completes a fill-in-the-blank sentence. The test is taken on a computer or tablet and lasts about 20 minutes. Test results are reported using a readability measurement called the Lexile. Think of a Lexile measure as you would the reading from an outdoor thermometer. Just as you can use the temperature on a thermometer to decide what kind of coat to wear, a Lexile measure can be used to decide how difficult a book to read compared to your reading ability.

When Diana's reading level (Lexile) is in the range of the Lexile level of a book, Diana can read that book with confidence and control. At this target rate of comprehension, material is challenging without being frustrating or boring. This encourages Diana to read more, and reading more in the targeted range will increase his/her Lexile measure, furthering reading skills.

Diana has scored a 0L Lexile measure on the last completed Lexile test. The Lexile reading range for a Class 3 student is 500 - 800L.

Diana may have received a personal list of recommended books that reflects his/her Lexile measure and reading interests. After reading a book, Diana will take a comprehension quiz to see if he/she understood the book. I will keep track of Diana's reading and how he/she performs on quizzes and Lexile tests throughout the year.

There will be plenty of classroom incentives to keep students working toward their reading goals, but we need your help too. To continue to grow as a reader, encourage Diana to:

- Read 20 minutes a day from books you find within a Lexile range of about 50 Lexile points above to 100 points below his/her current Lexile measure.
- Choose books on a variety of topics, fiction and nonfiction
- Discuss books they are reading with friends and family, asking questions before, during, and after.
- Keep track of new vocabulary learned and use new words in conversation and writing.
- Use context clues and a dictionary to understand unfamiliar words.

Your involvement is critical to Diana's success. Feel free to contact me with any questions. Thank you for working with me to help Diana read more to achieve more.

Kind regards,
 Nicola Mendez

This is an example of a parent letter. Based on the zone in which your school is located, you will get access to the Korean, Arabic, English, or Spanish version of the parent letter. The English version is available as default.
